“ Joriel was a very sweet kid and young man he was always laughing, joking. I have known him since he was 3 years old he grew too fast and became a handsome young man. Last time we were one on one was when, he picked me up from the airport. He asked me if he can drive back home and if he can drive my car again next time I go out of town and I said yes of course but you will have to take to the airport and he said no problem I'll be happy too. I always will remember his beautiful smile. I'll love you forever. RIP . We'll see you again!
