

Winifred Rowley McMaster

January 20, 1925 - March 1, 2020

Winifred Rowley McMaster, 95, of Raleigh, NC died peacefully on Sunday, March 1, 2020 after a brief time in hospice care. She was born in Neodesha, Kansas on January 20, 1925 to Lee and Minnie Rowley.

Win, as her friends knew her, was an active member of First United Methodist Church of Winnsboro, SC where she taught Sunday school and served on various church councils. She was active in her community where she delivered Meals on Wheels and served on the Board of Directors of the Fairfield County Substance Abuse Commission for eight years. She was a past board member and life member of the Fairfield County Historical Society, life member of Friends of the Library, and past board member and member of the Winnsboro Cotillion. Win enjoyed volunteering and gave her time to many organizations such as Fairfield Memorial Hospital, Richland Children's Hospital, and the local Girl Scout and Cub Scout troops. She liked following the stock market and never shied away from a good political debate.

Winifred was preceded in death by her parents; two husbands, John Elder Fowler and Spencer Rice McMaster, Jr.; two brothers, Joseph and Richard; and two sisters, Virginia and Maxine.

She is survived by her children, Susan (Kerry) Fowler-Hindall of Elgin, SC, and Randy (Anna) Fowler of Raleigh, NC; grandchildren, Lauren (Wes) Johnson of Cary, NC, and Bryan Fowler of Raleigh, NC; great-grandchild, Paul Wesley Johnson III (Trip). She is also survived by her stepdaughter, Tracy Brown of Columbia, SC; step grandchildren, Lindsay Brown and Chris Brown of Columbia, SC.

Following cremation, a private memorial service will be held at a later date.

Donations may be made in memory of Winifred to the First United Methodist Church, 109 W College St, Winnsboro, SC 29180. The family is especially grateful to the entire staff at Magnolia Glen Senior Living Community and Transitions Hospice Care of Wake County.

Comments

“ Hi it's your cousins from Kansas aunt win was a Always kind and always beautiful when my mother passed away I found pictures of her 16 1718 beautiful I hope you see them I sent them to her I'm sorry that she's gone she's the last one for us on this side of the family I'm glad I got speak to her We only knew all of you has small children wish we could've seen each other before then Randy we sat on the swing on grandma rowleys porch in Wakeeney That's my one special memory I'm sorry for your loss was a really great mother she must've been Linda Nancy and Joe rowley

nancy norman - March 29 at 03:18 AM

“ Nancy - thank you for the kind words, and I do remember that visit to Wakeeney many years ago.

Randy Fowler - March 30 at 10:42 PM

“ Lucy D Coleman and her family send their deepest sympathies to the McMaster family. Lucy took a few trips with Wyn; they had fun being together. We are thankful for the friendship they shared!
Rest In Peace , Wyn
Lucy Coleman and the Coleman Family

Lucy Coleman McCoy - March 05 at 08:20 PM

“ Thank you Lucy. My mother talked about those trips. Thank you for being such a good friend to her.

Randy Fowler - March 30 at 10:43 PM